

Boxing Championship Double Header Guerrero vs. Ruiz and Salgado vs. Gallo at Cache Creek Casino Resort on Saturday, April 15th

For Immediate Release

Brooks, CA (March 6, 2017)- Longtime hall of fame promoter Don Chargin Productions and Paco Presents Boxing returns with their first card of 2017 entitled "Todo o Nada." Former IBF world super flyweight champion and two-time world title contender Rodrigo Guerrero (25-6-1, 16 KOs) takes on Fresno, CA's Mike Ruiz Jr. (11-4-2, 4 KOs) for the International Boxing Association America's bantamweight title at the Cache Creek Casino Resort in beautiful Brooks, CA on April 15th. First bell is at 6 PM.

The veteran, Rodrigo Guerrero has fought all across the world in some of the biggest fights possible as he fought Stuart Hall in front of a sold-out crowd in the United Kingdom. Guerrero lost a very questionable decision to Daiki Kameda for the IBF World super flyweight title (we have included it for you to watch (fight here)), as well as going the distance with a prime Vic Darchinyan. Guerrero is as good as ever and a win over Mike Ruiz Jr., for the title, will position him closer to fight the bantamweight world champion Shinsuke Yamanaka.

Coming off the biggest win of his career, Mike Ruiz Jr. upset a rising star in the super flyweight division, Bruno Escalante, in their rematch last year in Oakland, CA. Ruiz Jr. has been looking to parlay the win into a big fight and now will face a two-time world title contender in hopes of getting a redemption win over Guerrero. Ruiz Jr. came up short in his first attempt at winning the IBA title four years ago in Redwood City, CA and looks to complete his resurrection of his career by winning the title at Cache Creek Casino Resort.

The co-main event will feature an exciting super bantamweight match-up between Jose Salgado (35-3-2, 28 KOs) of Merida, Mexico taking on Javier Gallo (23-13-1, 12 KOs) Buena Park, California.

Salgado is a former NABF super flyweight champion, who fought Carlos Cuadras in 2014 for the WBC super flyweight title in which the bout was ruled a draw. Salgado has not fought for a world title since and is looking to get himself into title contention for a Cuadras rematch or even a bout with Roman "Chocolatito" Gonzalez in the near future. A win would set-up Salgado amongst the top of the division.

Gallo, another veteran to the sport is also no stranger to fighting for titles. This will be Gallo's second fight at Cache Creek Casino Resort. Last July 9, Gallo fought a war against Manual Roman and suffered a majority decision loss. Gallo has since won two fights and has earned his way back to fighting at Cache Creek.

Sacramento's featherweight Alberto Torres (8-0-2, 4 KOs) who knocked out undefeated prospect Adam Fiel in his last bout will take on tough spoiler in Jose Silveria (17-20, 6 KOs), who has three times the professional experience of Torres and is known for never being an easy outing for anyone.

Super middleweight Rudy Puga Jr. (8-0, 7 KOs) of Salinas, CA. Puga will have been out of the ring for over a whole year since his last bout will take on an opponent to be announced.

Young local boxers look to start off the night. The card will feature 18 year-old featherweight Ivan Vergara (1-0) of Vacaville PAL who is looking to pick up his second win of his professional career. Steven Rapadas (Pro Debut) of Sacramento, Ca will make his professional debut against an opponent to be announced.
